the words "and other purposes" —

Ordered that the title of the bill be as amended, that the Clerk inform the Senate thereof, and ask their concurrence to the amendment of the House to said bill and the bill thereof.

The following protest was presented to the House which was read and ordered to be spread on the Journals, — namely: —

Resolutions upon the Subject of Domestic Slavery having passed both branches of the General Assembly at its its present Session, "The undersigned hereby protest against the passage of the Same.

They believe that the Institution of Slavery is founded both in Injustice and bad policy; but that the promulgation of Abolition Doctrines tend rather to Increase than to abate its evils.

They believe the Congress of the United States has no power, under the Constitution to Interfere with the institution of Slavery in the different States.

They believe that the Congress of the United States has the power ~~to~~ under the Constitution to abolish Slavery in the district of Columbia; but that that power ought not to be exercised unless at the request of the people of said district.

The difference between these opinions and those contained in the said Resolutions, is their reasons for entering this protest". —
