

Targeting Autism for Libraries

This project is made possible in part by the IMLS and Secretary of State and State Librarian Jesse White and the Illinois State Library.

Illinois State Library ♦ Gwendolyn Brooks Building
300 South Second Street
Springfield, IL 62701-1796
May 17-18, 2018
A G E N D A

Thursday, May 17, 2018 – Day 1

8 a.m.	Registration	Coffee and Breakfast available.
8:30 a.m.	Welcoming Remarks	Suzanne Schriar , Associate Director, LAT, Targeting Autism Project PI, Illinois State Library and Russ Bonanno , CEO of LifeDesigns, Inc. , and Advisor for the Targeting Autism project.
8:45 a.m.	Journey Into Autism Adulthood: Creative Insights & Strategies for a Fulfilling Life	Susan Senator , author, blogger, journalist, and educator will share her insights and strategies for living a fulfilling life as a parent of three sons, the oldest of whom is diagnosed with autism.
9:45 a.m.	Break
10:00 a.m.	Librarians on the Spectrum: On Helping Make Libraries Inclusive	Gyasi Burks-Abbott, Stephanie Diorio, Erin Miller and Charlie Remy . Among the topics discussed, panel members will share their insights about how they promote positive change in the workplace and how libraries can improve the hiring process for people with autism.
12:00 p.m.	Lunch
1:00 p.m.	At the Intersection of Being Black, Female and Autistic	Morénike Giwa Onaiwu is a community advocate, writer, Christian, wife, mom, and educator. She is also a contributing author/editor of several publications, abstracts, and books focusing on community engagement, disability, diversity, and nontraditional leadership.
2:00 p.m.	Building Community Engagement	Amanda Marti , Community Advocate, will take forum participants through an interactive exercise in developing community needs assessments and establishing sustainable multi-stakeholder collaborations.
3:00 p.m.	Break
3:15 p.m.	Panel: Collaborative Models	Holly Jin, Cathy Hoffman, Deb Sherrick, Kathy Claybaugh and Julie Ozier will share how they have formed partnerships in their communities to enhance and expand library services to people with disabilities.

4:15 p.m. Autism Resources: An Update

Nalini Mahajan, Director & Webmaster, Marianjoy Medical Library; Nikki Michalak, Research Coordinator, Autism Training and Technical Assistance Project, and Colleen Shinn, Manager, Community Outreach, Autism Speaks, will share updates on valuable and relevant resources for use in libraries and communities.

5:00 p.m. Closing

Suzanne Schriar

Autism Speaks is dedicated to promoting solutions, across the spectrum and throughout the lifespan, for the needs of individuals with autism and their families through advocacy and support; increasing understanding and acceptance of people with autism spectrum disorder; and advancing research into causes and better interventions for autism spectrum disorder and related conditions.*

Join us to learn how Autism Speaks is enhancing lives today and is accelerating a spectrum of solutions for tomorrow.

Friday, May 18, 2018 – Day 2

8:15 a.m.	Welcome Day 2	Suzanne Schriar
8:30 a.m.	Journey to Adulthood on the Spectrum	Kerry Magro , best-selling author, national speaker, movie consultant and non-profit founder had a very uncertain future growing up. Diagnosed with Pervasive Developmental Disorder-Not Otherwise Specified (PDD-NOS) a form of autism, at age four, he was non-verbal and required countless hours of therapy and support. Kerry will discuss overcoming obstacles and provide tips for living a successful life on the spectrum.
9:30 a.m.	Advocating That All Be Served: the U.N., IFLA, A Survey and Library Service to People with Disabilities	Nancy Bolt has worked actively in the library profession for over 35 years. Nancy will share her research findings, her work with the International Federation of Libraries and Institutions (IFLA), and the United Nations and what it means for serving people with disabilities.
10:30 a.m.	Break
10:45 a.m.	Documentary Film and Discussion	Alyssa Huber , freelance filmmaker, will show her film, In Our Eyes: Living with Asperger's , followed by Q & A
11:45 p.m.	Lunch	Lunch
12:45 p.m.	Autism & Libraries in Ghana	Samuel Senyo Dogoe , Executive Director of Contemporary Consultancy Organization will share his efforts to create the first diagnostic/ treatment clinic and school serving children with autism in the Volta Region.
1:45 p.m.	Break
2:00 p.m.	Project ENABLE's Targeting Autism Training Launch	Katie McGinnis , Syracuse University, will roll out the new Targeting Autism online library training module, now available through Project ENABLE.
2:30 p.m.	Autism & Libraries in Trinidad	Sujin Huggins , Associate Professor at Dominican University School of Information Studies will present on autism and library services in Trinidad.
3:15 p.m.	Where Do We Go From Here?	Small group discussions to assess and report on the impact of the forum(s) to create positive change in your library or other workplace. How will you share what you have learned? What will you do to ensure the sustainability and growth of this support network?
4:15 p.m.	Wrap Up	Suzanne Schriar