FILE NO. 0300634

ORDER OF REVOCATION

TO THE RESPONDENT:

Anthony L. Debenedictis
(CRD #2326689)
84 Festival Court
White Plains, New York 10603

c/o Westrock Advisors, Inc.
230 Park Avenue
New York, New York 10169

WHEREAS, the above-captioned matter came on to be heard on October 8, 2003, pursuant to the Notice of Hearing dated August 20, 2003, FILED BY petitioner Secretary of State, and the record of the matter under the Illinois Securities Law of 1953 [815 ILCS 5] (the "Act") has been reviewed by the Secretary of State or his duly authorized representative.

WHEREAS, the rulings of the Hearing Officer on the admission of evidence and all motions are deemed to be proper and are hereby concurred with by the Secretary of State.

WHEREAS, the proposed Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Recommendations of the Hearing Officer, Soula J. Spyropoulos, Esq. in the above-captioned matter have been read and examined.

WHEREAS, the proposed Findings of Fact of the Hearing Officer correct and are hereby adopted as the Findings of Fact of the Secretary of State:

1. Section 130.1102 of Subpart K of the Rules and Regulations of the Illinois Securities Law of 1953 (the "Rules and regulations") states that each Respondent shall be given a Notice of Hearing at least 45 days before the first date set for any hearing under the Act. Proper notice is given by depositing a Notice of Hearing with the United States Postal Service (the “U.S.P.S), either by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or by the personal service of the Notice of Hearing to the last known address of the Respondent.

As per Exhibit 1, on August 20, 2003, the Department deposited the Notice of Hearing on the File, the Notice, with the U.S.P.S. by certified mail, return receipt requested, to both Respondent’s last known personal residence and last known place of business. The Notice was, thus, given on August 20, 2003. The Notice marks as the first date set for hearing the date of October 8, 2003, a date over 45 days after Respondent was given the Notice. Therefore, the service of the Notice upon Respondent by the Department was proper.

2. Section 11.F(1) of the Act provides that the Secretary of State shall not undertake any action or impose a fine against a registered salesperson of securities within the State of Illinois for a violation of the Act without first providing the salesperson an opportunity for hearing upon not less than 10 days’ notice given by personal service or registered mail or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the person concerned.

As per Exhibit 1, Respondent was properly notified of his opportunity to be heard on the File via the Department’s timely provision thereto of the Notice. As discussed in Paragraph 1 above, the Department served the Notice upon Respondent on August 20, 2003, a date well over 10 days before the Respondent’s scheduled opportunity to be heard on October 8, 2003. Notably, on August 25, 2003, at Respondent’s last known place of business, and at Respondent’s last known personal residence, acknowledged return receipts of the certified mailings as to the service of the Notice by the Department were executed, showing that Respondent had received well over the requisite 10 days’ notice of the scheduled, October 8th, hearing date. Therefore, because the Department gave proper notice of the hearing to Respondent, the Department has personal jurisdiction over Respondent.

3. Respondent failed to appear, whether personally or through counsel, at the hearing.
4. The Department offered exhibits, identified above, each of which was received and admitted into evidence, a proper record of all proceedings having been made and preserved as required.
5. No outstanding petitions, motions, or objections exist as to this proceeding.
6. At all material and relevant times Respondent was registered with the Secretary of State as a salesperson pursuant to Section 8 of the Act.
7. On April 15, 2003, without admitting or denying the findings alleged by NASD as per the Complaint, Respondent consented to NASD’s entry of the Letter of AWC executed thereby. The Letter of AWC sanctions Respondent with a fine in the amount of $5,000.00; with an order to pay disgorgement of unjust profits in partial restitution to customers AR and JR in the total amount of $381.43 plus interest; and with suspension from associating in any capacity with any NASD member firm for thirty (30) calendar days.

The Letter of AWC finds that on or about January 1, 2001, Respondent, without the prior knowledge, authorization, or consent of First Union (Respondent's employing dealer) customers AR and JR, effected or caused to be effected the following transactions in their First Union trust account:

- (i) the sale of 1,800 shares of Bank Atlantic Bancorp, Inc.; Hilton Corp., and
- (ii) the purchase of 1,000 shares of Copper Mountain Networks, Inc.

Because of the foregoing transactions, Respondent violated NASD Conduct Rule 2110.

WHEREAS, the proposed Conclusions of Law made by the Hearing Officer are correct and are hereby adopted as the Conclusions of Law of the Secretary of State:

1. The Secretary of State has jurisdiction over the subject matter hereof pursuant to the Act.
2. Section 8.E(1)(j) of the Act provides, inter alia, that the registration of salespeople registered within the State of Illinois may be revoked if the Secretary of State finds that such have been suspended by any self-regulatory organization registered under the Federal 1934 Act or the Federal 1974 Act arising from any fraudulent or deceptive act or a practice in violation of any rule, regulation, or standard duly promulgated by the self-regulatory organization.
3. Respondent is a registered salesperson of securities in the State of Illinois who has had entered against him an order, the Letter of AWC, that, because of Respondent's having bought and sold securities on behalf of customers without their prior knowledge, authorization, or consent, not only fines him, but also requires him to pay restitution to the customers involved and suspends him from associating with any NASD member firm in any capacity for thirty (30) calendar days. Respondent's actions were, thus, in contravention of, or violative of, Conduct Rule 2110 of NASD, a self-regulatory organization registered under the Federal 1934 Act.

Therefore, the suspension of Respondent in the order clearly arose from fraudulent or deceptive acts or practices in violation of rules, regulations, or standards duly promulgated by a self-regulatory organization, the NASD, registered under the Federal 1934 Act.

Order of Revocation

4. Under and by virtue of the foregoing, Respondent's registration as a salesperson of securities in the State of Illinois is subject to revocation pursuant to Section 8.E(1)(j) of the Act.

WHEREAS, the Hearing Officer recommended that the Secretary of State should revoke the Respondent's registration as a salesperson in the State of Illinois, and the Secretary of State adopts in its entirety the Recommendation made by the Hearing Officer.

NOW THEREFORE, IT SHALL BE AND IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. That Anthony L. Debenedictis' registration as a salesperson in the State of Illinois is revoked pursuant to the authority provided under Section 8.E(1)(j) of the Act.
2. That this matter is concluded without further proceedings.

Dated: This ___ day of October 2003.
