TO RESPONDENT:

Trust One Mortgage f/k/a The Mortgage Specialists

Chicago, Illinois 60610

On information and belief, I, Jesse White, Secretary of State for the State of Illinois, through my designated representative, who has been fully advised in the premises by the staff of the Securities Department, Office of the Secretary of State, herein find:

1. That Michael J. Riley, ("Respondent") is an individual whose last known address is 3-a General Sheridan Ct., Apple River, Illinois 61001.
2. That The Mortgage Specialists ("Mortgage Specialists") is a business entity with the last known address of 1550 Spring Road, #310, Oak Brook, Illinois 60523.
3. That Trust One Mortgage f/k/a The Mortgage Specialists ("Trust One") is a business entity with the last known address of 430 W. Erie St., Suite #205, Chicago, Illinois 60610.
4. That in or around March 2004, Respondent met with Illinois Investor at the office of Mortgage Specialists. At the meeting Respondent represented to Illinois Investor that he was the President of Mortgage Specialists. Respondent also told Illinois Investor that he was in the business of buying and rehabilitating homes for people in financial distress, and that Illinois Investor could make a profit by providing Respondent with a loan of $50,000 to purchase a property located in Diamond Lake, Illinois. The loan was to be secured by a promissory note.

5. That on or around March 30, 2004, Respondent traveled to Illinois Investor's home and collected a $50,000 check from Illinois Investor. Respondent told Illinois Investor to make the check payable to Roscara Capital, Inc. ("Roscara"), stating that he was also the president of Roscara.
6. That in exchange of the $50,000 check, Respondent secured the loan with a promissory note, which was signed by Respondent and Illinois Investor on March 30, 2004.
7. That the promissory note states that Respondent promised to pay the principal of the loan plus interest to Illinois Investor by the "maturity date" of August 1, 2004. Respondent was to pay interest to Illinois Investor on a monthly basis at a yearly rate of 20% beginning April 1, 2004. Respondent was to make those payments every month until he had paid all of the principal and interest and any other charges that he owed under the note. The monthly payments were to be applied to interest before principal, and if he still owed amounts after the "maturity date", he would make monthly payments to Illinois Investor in the amount of $833.00.

Failure to Register

8. That the activities set forth in paragraphs 4 through 6 above constitute the offer and sale of a note, and therefore a security as those terms are defined at Sec. 2.1, 2.5, and 2.5a of the Illinois Securities Law of 1953 (815 ILCS 5) (the "Act").
9. That Section 5 of the Act states, inter alia, that all securities except those set forth under Section 2a of this Act, or those exempt under Section 3 of this Act, or those offered or sold in transactions exempt under Section 4 of this Act, or face amount certificate contracts required to be registered under Section 6 of this Act, shall be registered as hereinafter in this section provided, prior to their offer or sale in this State.
10. That Respondent failed to file with the Secretary of State an application for registration of the security described above as required by the Act and that as a result the security was not registered pursuant to Section 5 of the Act prior to its offer and sale in the State of Illinois.
11. That Section 12.A of the Act provides it shall be a violation of the provisions of this Act for any person to offer or sell any security except in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
12. That Section 12.D of the Act provides, inter alia, that it shall be a violation of the provisions of this Act for any person to fail to file with the Secretary of State any application, report or document required to be filed under the provisions of this Act or any rule or regulation made by the Secretary of State pursuant to this Act or to fail to comply with the terms of any order of the Secretary of State issued pursuant to Section 11 hereof.

Fraud or Deceit/Misrepresentations or Omissions

13. That Illinois Investor has not received the principal Respondent promised to pay on the note, nor has Illinois Investor received any of the promised interest payments Respondent was to begin paying on April 1, 2004, nor was she advised of any risk to repayment of principal or payment of interest. In addition, Respondent has persistently failed and refused to show Illinois Investor the property located in Diamond Lake, Illinois, despite numerous requests made by Illinois Investor to see it.
14. That Section 12.F of the Act provides that it shall be a violation of the provisions of this Act for any person to engage in any transaction, practice or course of business in connection with the sale or purchase of securities which works or tends to work a fraud or deceit upon the purchaser or seller thereof.
15. That Section 12.G of the Act provides that it shall be a violation of the provisions of this Act for any person to obtain money or property through the sale of securities by means of any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.
16. That by virtue of the foregoing, Respondent has violated Sections 12.A, D, F, and G of the Act.
17. That the aforementioned findings are based upon credible evidence.
18. That Section 11.F (2) of the Act provides, inter alia, that the Secretary of State may temporarily prohibit the offer or sale of securities by any person, without notice and prior hearing, if the Secretary of State shall deem it necessary to prevent an imminent violation of the Act or to prevent losses to investors that will occur as a result of prior violations of the Act.
19. That the entry of this Temporary Order prohibiting Respondent Michael J. Riley from offering or selling securities in the State of Illinois is in the public interest and for the protection of the investing public and is consistent with the purposes intended by the provisions of the Act.

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT: pursuant to the authority granted by Section 11.F of the Act, Michael J. Riley, his/their managers, officers and directors, agents, employees, affiliates, representatives, successors and assigns are PROHIBITED from offering or selling securities in or from this State until the further Order of the Secretary of State.

Such request must be made within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of entry of the Temporary Order of Prohibition. Upon receipt of a request for hearing, a hearing will be scheduled as soon as reasonably practicable.
