Welcome to CyberService Express, the easy and convenient way for Illinois Safe Drivers to renew their driver's licenses.

Secretary White congratulates you for qualifying for this program by keeping a clean driving record for the past four years.

To renew online as a Safe Driver:

1. You must have your renewal form, which contains your renewal authorization number.
2. Your current address must match the address on your renewal form.
3. You must have a checking account or a valid Visa, MasterCard, Diner's Club or Discover credit card.
4. You agree to a $1.75 payment processor fee.

First time here? Check out the Frequently Asked Questions.

Your application for a Safe Driver Renewal sticker is an affirmation that you have read the renewal application letter and no situation exists that would make you ineligible to lawfully apply for a driver's license and that all information submitted by you is true and correct.

If you have moved after receiving your renewal notice, you cannot renew online. You must mail in your Safe Driver application or visit a Driver Services Facility and note your new address.
