Motorists with September Registrations Reminded of Deadline

SPRINGFIELD — Passenger car and B-truck owners who have license plates expiring in September can purchase renewal stickers online at www.cyberdriveillinois.com, by using the "TouchTone Renewal" system, or by visiting a Driver Services facility, Secretary of State Jesse White said today.

New design plates have been issued for all passenger vehicles in the state, while B-trucks and vehicles in all other plate categories will receive new plates in 2003.

It is now too late to mail applications and guarantee delivery of new stickers before the Sept. 30 expiration date. Anyone driving a vehicle on or after Oct. 1 with an expired September 2002 sticker will be subject to a $75 fine for improper registration.

White said passenger car and B-truck owners can buy their September 2003 renewal stickers over the counter at 116 Driver Services facilities, five Driver Services mobile units, and at about 2,415 financial institutions statewide for a slight additional fee.

Pre-printed renewal applications have been mailed to 698,109 passenger car and B-truck owners who renew their registrations in September.
