Secretary of State Jesse White and White Sox Players Alexei Ramirez and Alejandro De Aza Encourage Organ and Tissue Donation for National Donate Life Month

Illinois Secretary of State Jesse White joined White Sox players Alexei Ramirez and Alejandro De Aza along with Southpaw to encourage Illinois residents to join the Organ/Tissue Donor Registry during National Donate Life Month. White Sox announcer and kidney recipient Ed Farmer was honored for his role with the organ/tissue donor program. In Illinois, more than 5.5 million people have signed up for the registry, but every year about 300 people die waiting for their gift of life.
