Jesse White Joins NorthShore University HealthSystem for Child Passenger Safety Seat Check

Secretary of State Jesse White and the Illinois Secretary of State's Office joined NorthShore University HealthSystem in Evanston on Saturday in hosting a child passenger safety seat check to make sure children are properly secured in the appropriate child safety seats, including booster seats.

The leading cause of death among children is automobile crashes and, according to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA), three out of four child safety seats in Illinois are improperly installed. White's office supports child safety seat checks across the state. The office has 13 fitting stations throughout Illinois.
