in Hazel Crest

Illinois Secretary of State Jesse White will be recognized for his work in education and dedication to children during an anti-bullying event on Monday, November 14th. The anti-bullying event will be from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. at the Jesse White Learning Academy, located at 16910 Western Avenue in Hazel Crest.

“Getting an education is critical for our young people who will be our future leaders,” White said. “That’s why it is important that we teach children to report bullying so that efforts can be taken to stop it.”

Also, author Brandye Phillips will read from her new children’s book, Don’t be a Bully. Phillips will visit schools and libraries across the state to educate children how not to become a victim of bullying. For more information, visit BrandyePhillips.com.
