The General Assembly revised the Election Code, offering an alternative composition of each state central committee. Since January 1984, the state central committee of each political party may choose to: 1) elect one central committeeman from each congressional district; or 2) elect one male and one female committeeman from each congressional district. As a result, the Republican Party has opted for one central committeeman per congressional district, while the Democratic Party has chosen to elect one female and one male from each congressional district.
