

Pet lovers across the state know the importance of keeping their animals healthy and safe. But pet overpopulation can be a problem if dogs, cats and other "companion" animals are not properly spayed or neutered and allowed to roam free.

My office offers pet lovers the unique opportunity to support animal population control in Illinois by purchasing a set of Pet Friendly License Plates. Proceeds from the sale of these plates go into a fund to provide money for spaying and neutering Illinois companion animals.

Pet Friendly plates provide a great way to show your love of animals and even say something special about your pet with vanity or personalized plates.
