

For Immediate Release:
April 16, 2013

For More Information Contact:
Elizabeth Kaufman

Jesse White Visits Stroger Hospital to Encourage Organ/Tissue Donation

Illinois Secretary of State Jesse White joined officials at John H. Stroger Hospital to hold an organ/tissue donor registration drive. Officials from Cook County Health and Hospitals System (CCHHS) joined White to encourage organ donation including Cook County Commissioner Robert Steele, a kidney recipient (top far right). White helps CCHHS business manager Anthony Raj Kumar sign up for the organ/tissue donor registry (bottom right). April is National Donate Life Month. White encourages Illinoisans to become organ/tissue donors by visiting LifeGoesOn.com or calling 800-210-2106.