

ILLINOIS

Fact Sheet

Illinois State Officials

- Governor Bruce Rauner (R)
- Lieutenant Governor Evelyn Sanguinetti (R)
- Attorney General Lisa Madigan (D)
- Secretary of State Jesse White (D)
- Comptroller Leslie Geissler Munger (R)
- Treasurer Michael Frerichs (D)

U.S. Senators

- Dick Durbin (D)
- Mark Kirk (R)

Illinois Legislative Leaders

- Senate President John J. Cullerton (D)
- Senate Minority Leader Christine Radogno (R)
- Speaker of the House Michael J. Madigan (D)
- House Minority Leader Jim Durkin (R)

Legislature

Illinois is divided into 59 legislative and 118 representative districts. One state senator is elected from each legislative district, and one state representative is elected from each representative district, resulting in 177 members of the Illinois General Assembly.

Illinois History

- French explorer Louis Jolliet and Jesuit Father Jacques Marquette discovered the area known as Illinois in 1673.
- The Illinois area was organized as a territory on February 3, 1809.
- Illinois became the 21st state to enter the Federal Union on December 3, 1818.
- Shadrach Bond was the first Governor of Illinois in 1818.

Population (2010 U.S. Census)

- Illinois is the fifth-most populous state in the country with a population of 12,830,632.
- Illinois has 102 counties. The largest in population is Cook, which includes Chicago and its suburbs, with 5,194,675 people. Hardin County, located in the Shawnee National Forest in southeastern Illinois, is the smallest in population with 4,320 people.

Capital Cities

- Kaskaskia — 1818 to 1820
- Vandalia — 1820 to 1839
- Springfield — December 1839 to present

State Capitol Building

- Illinois has had six State Capitol Buildings — one in Kaskaskia, three in Vandalia and two in Springfield.
- The fifth Capitol — the Old State Capitol in downtown Springfield — is where Abraham Lincoln served as a state legislator and is open to the public as a historic site.
- The sixth and present State Capitol is located at Second and Capitol Streets in Springfield and dates back to 1868. It took 20 years to complete the building at a cost of $4.3 million.

State Symbols

The Great Seal of Illinois and the Illinois State Flag are two of the state's official symbols. Other state symbols are:

- Amphibian Eastern Tiger Salamander
- Animal White-tailed Deer
- Bird Cardinal
- Dance Square Dance
- Fish Bluegill
- Flower Violet
- Fossil Tully Monster
- Fruit Goldrush Apple
- Insect Monarch Butterfly
- Mineral Fluorite
- Nickname Prairie State
- Prairie Grass Big Bluestem
- Reptile Painted Turtle
- Slogan "Land of Lincoln"
- Snack Food Popcorn
- Soil Drummer Silty Clay Loam
- Song "Illinois"
- Tree White Oak

JESSE WHITE
SECRETARY OF STATE

ILLINOIS

Fact Sheet

Illinois' 10 Most Populous Cities (2010 U.S. Census)

Chicago (Cook County)	2,695,598
Aurora (DuPage/Kane/Kendall/Will Counties)	197,899
Rockford (Winnebago County)	152,871
Joliet (Kendall/Will Counties)	147,433
Naperville (DuPage/Will Counties)	141,853
Springfield (Sangamon County)	116,250
Peoria (Peoria County)	115,007
Elgin (Cook/Kane Counties)	108,188
Waukegan (Lake County)	89,078
Cicero (Cook County)	83,891

Geography

- Illinois is 385 miles long and 218 miles wide.
- Land and water areas measure approximately 58,000 square miles.
- The highest point is 1,235 feet at Charles Mound in Jo Daviess County.
- The lowest point is 279 feet at Fort Defiance Point in Alexander County.

Economy

- Illinois is a leader in agriculture, transportation, manufacturing and food processing.
- Illinois ranks fifth in the nation in exports with $65.8 billion.
- Illinois ranks fifth in the nation in retail and food services sales, which totaled $178.9 billion in 2009.
- Illinois ranks 16th in the nation in per capita income with $49,815 in 2012.

Transportation

- With Lake Michigan to the northeast, the Mississippi bordering the west and its location in the Midwest, Illinois is the hub of America's transportation network and a mainstream of American shipping.
- Illinois has the fourth-largest highway system in the nation with 139,498 miles of roads.
- Illinois' nearly 8,000-mile network of railroads is the nation's second largest.
- O'Hare International Airport in Chicago is the nation's second-busiest airport.

Industry/Manufacturing

- Illinois is a leader in the production of machinery, electronics, housewares, appliances, foods, grains and pet food, among other items.
- Illinois ranks fifth in the nation in the number of manufacturing establishments, with 18,728 plants employing approximately 577,600 people in 2013.

Coal/Oil Production

- Illinois produced nearly 48.5 million tons of coal in 2012, ranking the state fifth among coal-producing states.
- Oil production in Illinois was 26,765 million barrels in 2012, ranking it 14th among oil-producing states.

Agriculture

- Illinois has approximately 74,300 farms on nearly 27 million acres.
- Illinois is the nation's leading soybean producer, with 461.6 million bushels harvested in 2013.
- Illinois is the second-leading state in corn production, with 2.1 billion bushels harvested in 2013.
- Other major agricultural commodities include wheat, sorghum, pork, beef, milk, fruits, vegetables and hay.

Technology

Illinois is a leader in information technology and biotechnology. The University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana is home of the Center for Supercomputing Research & Development, and Argonne National Laboratory near Chicago is one of the largest state-of-the-art scientific laboratories and research centers in the country.

Higher Education

- Illinois ranks seventh in the nation in the number of institutions for higher education.
- Illinois has the third-largest community college system in the country.

Illinois' Major Public Universities and their populations (2011)

University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana	44,520
Illinois State University • Normal	19,924
University of Illinois at Chicago	26,589
Western Illinois University • Macomb	12,200
University of Illinois at Springfield	5,137
Northeastern Illinois University • Chicago	11,631
Southern Illinois University Carbondale	17,964
Eastern Illinois University • Charleston	11,178
Southern Illinois University Edwardsville	14,055
Governors State University • University Park	5,674
Northern Illinois University • DeKalb	21,138
Chicago State University • Chicago	7,235

Other Illinois Facts

- Illinois is home to the nationally and internationally acclaimed Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum in Springfield.
- Illinois lays claim to our nation's 44th President, Barack Obama, whose home is in Chicago.
- Illinois boasts the nation's tallest office building — the 110-story Willis Tower (formerly the Sears Tower) in Chicago.
- The Illinois State Fair in Springfield boasts one of the largest livestock expositions in the country.
- Illinois has the sixth-largest State Parks and Recreation areas in the nation, with 487,176 acres serving 42,293,523 visitors annually.