A Message from the Secretary

Dear Reader:

This is the age of information. Readers and researchers have a wealth of information at their fingertips through libraries and computers.

To help you find Illinois government documents, I am pleased to provide this comprehensive guide to Illinois state publications. By Illinois law, copies of state government publications are required to be filed with the Illinois State Library.

The following preface provides information on obtaining these publications, including electronic publications.

For more information regarding this publication, please contact the State Library. For more information about programs and services of Illinois libraries and the Secretary of State's office, visit www.cyberdriveillinois.com.

We look forward to serving you.

Jesse White
Secretary of State & State Librarian

PREFACE

Following is a comprehensive listing of Illinois State Government publications deposited with the Illinois State Library from January through December 2011. Publications received in sufficient quantities for distribution are marked with an asterisk (*) and are available at the Illinois Document Depository Libraries. Items marked with an “e” are ephemeral and need not be retained by all depositories. Items marked with a dollar sign ($) supersede previous issues.

All publications listed are available for use or loan at the Illinois State Library. Publications needed for personal use or for another library’s collection should be requested directly from the issuing agency.

Publications are listed in alphabetical order according to the keyword of the issuing agency. “See” references and OCLC numbers have been added for your convenience. All electronic publications and items received on microfiche are listed in a separate section.

For more information regarding this publication or the Illinois Documents Depository Program, please contact: Illinois State Library, Gwendolyn Brooks Building, Government Documents Unit, 300 S. Second St., Springfield, IL 62701-1796, 217-782-6304.
