Section III

After carefully reading each of the following documents, initial and date each one indicating that you understand its content.

Affidavit

Upon my application for a license to deal in vehicles or their component parts, I attest that I have read and understand the Illinois Vehicle Code, especially the sections that pertain to anti-theft laws and the sections that pertain to dealers, repairers, rebuilders, used parts dealers, scrap processors, auctioneers and out-of-state salvage buyers.

I understand that all vehicles that are wrecked to the point of being salvage or junk must either have an Illinois Junking Certificate or an Illinois Salvage Certificate.

I further understand that at no time may I remove, deface or alter a vehicle identification number from any vehicle or component part, whether this number is stamped into the part or affixed to a plate attached to this vehicle or component part. I understand it is unlawful to possess a vehicle or component part that has had these numbers or plates removed.

I hereby state that as an issuer of Temporary Registration Permits (TRPs) I will comply with Illinois Compiled Statutes and the Illinois Administrative Code Title 92, Chapter II, Sections 1010.420 and 1010.421. I further understand that as an issuer of TRPs, I shall pay a reimbursement fee per permit to the Secretary of State for lost, missing, stolen or destroyed TRPs. I also agree to maintain records of all TRPs issued as prescribed by the Illinois Vehicle Code and Illinois Administrative Code.

Notice: Public Act 84-0680 requires a statement that the applicant shall comply with Chapter 625 ILCS 5/5-301. Your signature on this application indicates compliance with this section.

Public Act 94-784 requires a statement that the applicant shall comply with 815 ILCS 308. Your signature on this application indicates compliance with these sections. Your signature on this application indicates compliance with all local rules and regulations.

Requirements: As an inducement to the Secretary of State to issue a Dealer License, the applicant shall:

- a) Maintain for a period of three years, in the form required by the Illinois Vehicle Code and the Secretary of State, books and records that shall be open to inspection at any reasonable hour; and
- b) Maintain a record of every Dealer License and to whom it is issued.

I certify that no Illinois Use or Sales Tax is due to the Department of Revenue.

I understand that before a Dealer License will be issued, there will be an investigation upon application regarding my qualifications to become a licensed dealer and an inspection of the established place of business.

I have fully read and understand all the information in the above statement.
