Fire Chief License Plates are available only to the fire chief of a municipal fire department or fire protection district. Fire Chief License Plates may be displayed on passenger vehicles, trucks and vans weighing 8,000 pounds or less. Vehicles displaying these plates must be owned by the fire department or the chief officer of the fire department.

A letter from the municipality or fire protection district verifying the individual's status as fire chief must accompany this application. A letter also must be submitted annually with the registration renewal verifying the individual's status as fire chief.

The license plates must be surrendered when the person no longer serves as fire chief.

Note: There is a $8 fee for municipal-owned Fire Chief License Plates. In addition, switching plates requires a $29 replacement fee.
