Ex-Prisoner of War plates
also may be requested through Pick-a-Plate at www.cyberdriveillinois.com.

Ex-Prisoner of War License Plates may be issued at no cost for the first set of plates to any U.S. citizen who was a prisoner of war while serving in the U.S. Armed Forces or with any of its allies. The name of the ex-POW must appear as owner or co-owner on both the title and registration application. The widowed spouse of an ex-POW also may obtain a set of plates, provided the spouse was married to the ex-POW at the time of death and is single at the time of application. A letter from the Illinois Department of Veterans' Affairs or federal government verifying ex-POW status is required. Applicants who do not have this information may contact: Illinois Department of Veterans' Affairs, 833 S. Spring St., Springfield, IL 62704.

Ex-Prisoner of War plates are multi-year and may be displayed on passenger vehicles, trucks and vans weighing 8,000 pounds. To request Ex-POW License Plates, please submit the appropriate request form along with your license plates registration or renewal application, the required documentation and the following applicable fees to the address above.
